

DINGWELL'S

North America

ESTIMATOR MACHINING/FABRICATION

Dingwell's North America is a machining, fabrication and manufacturing company with plants in Canada and the U.S.A., servicing major industry for over 65 years.

Dingwell's North America is currently seeking immediate full time employment for an ESTIMATOR in its MACHINING division with knowledge of fabrication considered a strong asset.

Responsibilities: The candidate would be responsible for the preparation of material and labor costing pertaining to bid packages, scheduling of shop loading and preparing procedures for implementation on shop floor while working closely with other divisions.

Qualifications: Proficiency in Auto Cad, Microsoft Office (Word & Excel). Understand the machining process of both conventional and CNC. Welding and fabrication knowledge. Project Management, Scheduling and planning abilities. Good communication and organizational skills. A technician or technologist CET certification is considered a definite asset. The ability to work independently yet be a team player with a strong positive attitude.

Dingwell's North America offers a complete benefit package with a salary to commensurate with your experience.

Deadline is August 25, 2010.

Apply by fax or email to: Fax: 807 623-1368
Email: wendybell@dingwells.com